

National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice Lifetime Membership Application

BENEFITS:

- As a national member of NABCJ, you will receive our quarterly newsletter, The Commitment.
- Full participation in elections and NABCJ-sponsored activities at both the national and local levels. These events include conferences as well as civic and social activities.
- As a life member you are no longer required to pay national membership dues. However, if you are a member of a local chapter, you are subject to local dues.
- One free NABCJ national conference registration. The conference registration cannot be used until one year after dues are paid in full and must be used within 3 years. Registration is not transferable.
- A life member medallion.
- A life member plaque. These items will be presented during NABCJ's annual banquet recognition. If you are unable to attend a conference to receive your award, we will be more than glad to mail these items to you.
