National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice 2008 Annual Conference and Training Institute Conference Journal Ad Submission Form

The Conference Journal provides an excellent opportunity to highlight your organization, business, or university. By advertising in the journal, your company or organization can gain valuable publicity and recognition and ensure the success of the conference. The journal serves as a continuous reminder of your support of NABCJ. Moreover, your advertisement will have continuous visibility throughout the country via local NABCJ chapters and their membership.
